The Competition

8. The competition will be divided into two phases.
 - a) Selection Phase : Artists are invited to submit entries in the form of photographic images for finalist selection which will be completed by 29 January 2018. Artists will be notified by mail (or email) as to whether their work has been selected or not.
 - b) Hanging and Judging Phase : Artists who have been selected as a finalist will be invited to submit the original work for hanging and final judging which will take place on 26 February 2018. These works will be exhibited for approximately 3 Months and subsequently may tour.
9. The winners will be notified and first prize and runner up announced at the opening. The Peoples Choice winner will be announced at the culmination of the exhibition.

10. Prizes are as follows - First prize: $20,000, Runner up: $2,500, Peoples Choice: $2,500

Submission

11. Initial entries (as above) accompanied by a completed entry form and entry fee must be received by the New Zealand Portrait Gallery by 8 December 2017. Each entry must be clearly identified with the artist's name, address and title of work. Initial entries and documentation will be retained and will form part of the Gallery's records.

12. Entries should be packaged appropriately. All postage and insurance costs are at the expense of the artist.

13. If selected as a finalist instructions for submitting original works chosen for exhibition will be sent by 29 January 2018.

Exhibition and Sale

14. Artists whose work is selected for exhibition can choose to offer work for sale - this must be indicated when the work is submitted for hanging. The New Zealand Portrait Gallery (NZPG) will deduct a commission on work sold. For those registered for GST the commission will be 30% of the GST inclusive price - for those not registered for GST, 30% plus GST.

15. The NZPG and any venue showing the exhibition will take all reasonable care of exhibits but they shall not be liable for any loss of, or damage to, any of the works. Each competitor is responsible for maintaining his/her own insurance cover against such risks.

16. Ownership and copyright of the winning portrait will be transferred to the New Zealand Portrait Gallery and will be kept in perpetuity in their collection.

17. By entering the competition entrants -

(i) warrant that they own the work submitted and that the copyright of the work is vested in them or, if this is not so, that the work is submitted with the permission of the current owner and/or holder of copyright as may be the case.

(ii) warrant that they have obtained the appropriate model releases from the person(s) featured in their submitted portrait.

(iii) agree that their work may be exhibited at any venue organised by the NZPG and that the portrait will be available for a period of up to eighteen months, in the event that the exhibition/works tour.

(iv) agree that the NZPG and exhibition sponsor shall have the right of free reproduction of all exhibited paintings for sales/publicity/educational and reference purposes in connection with the Award.

(v) if offered for sale warrant that the work is theirs to sell and agree to accept the price they specify at the time of submission of the work (less gallery commission).

18. The Trustees reserve the right to decline to accept an entry.

19. The judge reserves the right not to award the prize if no entry is considered deserving of an award.

20. The judge's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.
